Appendix 1 – Complaints Handling Procedure

The Complaints Handling Procedure (the "Procedure") of Q Securities SA (Malta Branch) (the "Company") shall provide the relevant information to eligible natural or legal persons wishing to lodge a complaint (the "Complainant") to the Company.

The Procedure outlines the process to be followed in order to ensure that complaints are handled promptly, equally, fairly and efficiently.

Provision of Information

The Company shall:

- On request or when acknowledging receipt of complaints, provide written information regarding their complaints handling process;
- Publish details of their complaints handling process in an easily accessible manner. In this regard, the Company has published its complaints handling procedure on its website;
- Provide clear, accurate and up-to-date information about the complaints handling process including:
    - Details of how to make a complaint; and
    - The process that will be followed when handling a complaint.
- Keep the complainant informed about further handling of the complaint.

Filing a Complaint

Complaints may be made free of charge and ideally in writing, addressed to the Complaints Management Function of the Company, using one of the following methods:

Email	sarah.farrugia@rmcwise.com
Mail	SOHO The Strand Fawwara Building Triq L-Imsida Gzira GZR 1401 Malta

Complaints shall be addressed to the Company's Complaints Handling Function.

In case the complaint has been made verbally, the Company shall make a summary of te complaint and request the Complainant to confirm in writing the said summary and send a signed copy of the complaint to the Company.

The Complainant should provide the Company with as much detail as possible to enable the Company to resolve the concerns fairly, effectively and promptly. The Complainant should provide at least the following information:

- Name and address of the Complainant;
- Contact details of the Complainant (e.g. telephone number and/or email address);
- If the complaint is being handled by an external representative, include external representative name and contact details;
- A description of the complaint and how it affected the Complainant;
- Supporting documentation for the complaint; and
- When the incident(s) occurred.

Procedure for Responding to Complaints

The Company shall:

- Acknowledge receipt of complaint in writing upon receipt of receipt of complaint;

- Should a complaint be made orally, the Company shall make a summary of the complaint and request the complainant to confirm the summary in writing and send a signed copy of the complaint to the Company;
- Seek to gather and investigate all relevant evidence and information regarding the complaint;
- Communicate in plain language, which is clearly understood;
- Provide a response without unnecessary delay, or at least, by no later than 15 business days from when the complaint was received. Where the investigation of a complaint is not completed within 15 business days from receipt of complaint, the Company shall:
    - Inform the complainant about the causes of the delay; and
    - Provide an indication as to when the investigation is likely to be completed.
- When providing a final decision in writing in terms of the complaint which does not fully satisfy the complainant's request, the complainant may refer the complaint to the Officer of the Arbiter for Financial Services established under the Arbiter for Financial Services Act (Cap. 555).

The Arbiter for Financial Services can be contacted as follows:
